When to Consider Hospice

We often hear families say “I wish I would have called sooner”.

Our team is here to infuse this time with meaning, joy, and quality of life - whatever that means to you. The earlier we can join you, the more we can do for you and your loved one.

If your loved one is experiencing the following, it might be time for hospice care:

- Frequent ER or Hospital Visits
- Recurrent or Severe Infections
- Increased Confusion
- Assistance with Daily Care Needs
- Increased Pain
- Skin Breakdown
- Multiple Falls
- Weight Loss and Appetite Changes
- Frequent Medication Changes
- Withdrawal from Favorite Activities

Common Diagnoses

The following conditions often accompany the decision to start hospice, especially if curative options have been exhausted or stopped due to personal wishes.

- Neurological Diseases - ALS, MS, Parkinson’s, Huntington’s, History of Stroke
- COPD or other Lung Disease
- Alzheimer’s/Dementia
- Liver Disease
- Kidney Disease
- Heart Disease
- Cancer
